Bloody Sunday March Committee 2014

POLICE: SHOOT TO KILL?

The Killing of Mark Duggan

Where: Pilots Row Community Centre, Rossville St. Derry

When: Saturday, 1st February 2014 at 7.30pm

Categories: Film Screening/Talk/Q&A session

On Saturday, 1st February 2014 The Bloody Sunday March Committee will host a Film screening and Talk on the circumstances surrounding the Killing of Mark Duggan in Tottenham in 2011.

Speaking on behalf of the March Committee Jim Doherty said “The film screening which will last around 30 minutes will be followed by a Question and Answer session where Stafford Scott co-ordinator of Tottenham RIGHTS and co-founder of the Broadwater Farm Defence Campaign will give an insight into the context and alarming events surrounding the Killing of Mark Duggan by the London Metropolitan Police.”

Mr. Doherty went on to say “Stafford will also talk about the reaction to what he himself described as a “perverse and contradictory inquest verdict” of ‘Lawful Killing“ which was given just a few weeks ago.”

The Bloody Sunday March Committee member said he was delighted that Stafford Scott had travelled to Derry for these years’ commemoration events. “It is important that through our programme of events we continue to make common cause with those struggling for justice not just in Ireland but throughout the world.”

The Film Screening and discussion forms part of the Bloody Sunday March Committee’s programme of events which will culminate in the annual Bloody Sunday March from Central Drive in Creggan to Free Derry Corner on Sunday 2nd February at 2.30pm.

Stafford Scott will also be the main speaker at this years Bloody Sunday March – Sunday, 2nd February 2014

Mark Duggan shot dead by the London Metropolitan Police 2011.
