

Bloody Sunday March Committee

The Press Launch Of

'RESIST'

(This Year's Bloody Sunday Programme of Events)

The Bloody Sunday March for Justice programme of events was launched earlier today. This year's theme is 'Resist' and the programme will reflect the resistance to continued attacks on civil rights and liberties whether in Ferguson USA, Palestine, Dublin, Belfast or indeed here in Derry itself. The programme for 2015 will continue the tradition of acting as an inclusive platform for the seemingly disparate ongoing campaigns concerning the people of these islands and beyond. As in previous years it is a time to join together, make connections and raise our voices in solidarity. Some of the highlights of this year's programme can be seen below. A completed programme will be available at www.bloodysundaymarch.org from next week.
